Member organizations of the Joint Commission of Pharmacy Practitioners (JCPP) held their regularly scheduled quarterly meeting on Tuesday, November 28, 2017, at the Hilton Old Towne Hotel, Alexandria, Virginia. Meeting participants were welcomed by Donnie Calhoun, ACA CEO and Chair of this JCPP Meeting. Representatives of member organizations and guests introduced themselves.

Opening Remarks / Administrative Activity

Members reviewed and accepted the Summary of Discussion from the August 1, 2017, JCPP meeting. The participants then reviewed the 2018 JCPP meeting schedule and agenda topics for the 2018 meetings. The chairs of the 2018 meetings will be: January 25 (Menighan), May 22 (Maddux), August 6 (Abramowitz), and November 29 (Grosso). JCPP members were asked to provide feedback on agenda topics and were reminded that the registration information will be on the JCPP website.

Update from Patient Care Process Workgroup on MTM Definition

Anne Burns, APhA Vice President for Professional Affairs, and chair of the JCPP Patient Care Process Workgroup, discussed activity conducted to date by the Workgroup. The workgroup has met several times and conducted stakeholder surveys regarding terminology and definitions. Anne reviewed the input received from stakeholders and discussions that will lead to the presentation of a revised definition for medication therapy management at the January 2018 JCPP meeting.

Health 3.0 and Unbreaking Healthcare

David Chase, Health Rosetta co-founder, presented his perspective on the current healthcare system, challenges for employers and examples of successful approaches. He discussed the opioid use crisis and contributions by employers, providers, policy makers, and patients towards creation of the crisis. He shared his perspective on what pharmacy organizations could do to increase his and employer knowledge of ways pharmacists are and could collaborate with other providers to improve patient outcomes and healthcare costs. JCPP member organizations were asked to inform their members of the resources available from Health Rosetta.

Drug Pricing – politics and reality

Stephen Scohondelmeyer, PharmD, PhD, Prime Institute Director, provided an overview of drug pricing and health coverage in today's political environment. He discussed trends regarding drug pricing, health coverage, value of pharmaceuticals and pharmacists' services, and emerging issues. APhA legal counsel Steve Benson was in attendance during this discussion to ensure the discussions were within appropriate parameters.

Organizational Updates

Each organization provided a written report on the progress they are making in the areas of focus related to the implementation of the JCPP Vision Strategic Plan: Patient Care Process; Pharmacy Quality; Value of Pharmacists' Patient Care Services; HIT; Provider Status Recognition, in addition to other organizational information.

DRAFT

A number of newsletters, journals, and other educational materials from practitioner organizations were provided so that member organizations may better serve pharmacy practitioners and coordinate future projects.

The next regularly scheduled meeting of JCPP is January 25, 2018; JCPP members were asked to submit feedback on proposed topics for the 2018 meetings. Potential topics include value-based contracting and value-based decision making (June); workforce stress and well-being (November); interprofessional practice/education and training of residents; medical marijuana; and, importance of IPE in meeting triple AIM.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 2:46pm.
