

Rosie Walker, MA

Rosie Walker is a passionate leader focused on achieving inclusion excellence, to elevate us all. Ms. Walker currently serves at the Director of Recruitment and Diversity for the American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy (AACP). Prior to joining AACP, Ms. Walker held leadership positions at various institutions of higher education focusing on student recruitment and retention, partnerships and pipeline building, and providing educational and career opportunities for underserved student populations.